This trip is customizable and you yourself design your trip and decide what it should include. An optional number of hotel nights are booked for you in advance. You can choose to book consecutive nights or you can break up the trip while you go mountain hiking, visit family and friends or embark on some other adventure alongside your Inlandsbanan journey. You can then return to Inlandsbanan and continue your train journey. You have two wonderful weeks to complete your journey from the day the package begins. For inspiration and ideas, look at the pages where the municipalities along the railway provide information on what they have to offer. Check the timetable to see what works best and fill your days doing what you like best.
